Cumbria is home to 102,600 0-19 year olds

If the county was made up of 100 children and young people, what would they look like?

100 children

- 26 Girls
- 25 Boys
- 24 aged 0-4 years
- 49 aged 5-9 years
- 51 aged 10-14 years
- 25 aged 15-19 years

12 live in households in fuel poverty

10 are eligible for Free School Meals

15 live in households that are private rented

12 live in households in fuel poverty

68 live in households that are owned

17 live in households that are social rented

6 lone parent housholds

13 live in low income families

52 families with more than one child

5 from Black & Minority Ethnic Groups

62 mothers initiate breastfeeding within 48hrs of delivery

35 mothers breastfeed at 6-8 weeks

3 babies born at term with a low birth weight

97 babies have received all routine immunisations by their 1st Birthday

2 conceptions in 15-17 year old females

5 16-17 year olds are Not in Education, Employment or Training (NEET)

1 on a Children in Need plan

1 has an active Child Protection plan

1 child is looked after

3 pupils have an EHCP or Statement

10 pupils are persistent absentees missing 10% or more school sessions

66 Key Stage 4 pupils have achieved A*-C Grades in GCSE English & Maths

61 Key Stage 2 pupils have achieved the expected level in all subjects (Reading, Writing and Maths)

12 pupils have SEN Support

68 reception aged pupils have achieved a Good Level of Development

2 pupils have had at least one fixed term exclusion

68 5 year olds are free from obvious dental decay

2 chlamydia detections in 15 to 24 year olds

9 school aged children have mental health disorders

1 emergency hospital admission per year caused by unintentional & deliberate injuries in 0-14 year olds

1 Year 6 pupil is underweight

28 Reception pupils would be overweight or obese

35 Year 6 pupils would be overweight or obese

Source: Cumbria Intelligence Observatory, October 2017

info@cumbriaobservatory.org.uk